Preparation in August

Preparation is vital for the spiritual health of any church. For that matter, preparation is essential for productive living in a fallen world. Being prepared is not simply an exercise we do for earthquakes, floods, and other disasters. Preparation is an intentional commitment on our part to implement biblical wisdom. We have selected preparation for the theme of August. This whole month we're going to take steps in preparing ourselves for the launch of our Making Disciples Ministry Plan that begins on September 12th, 2010. And the first place we want to begin is with our families. Family health is absolutely essential for church health. So, please take advantage of all that this day will hold for strengthening your family in the Lord.

Making Disciples Ministry Plan

Thank you to all who have participated in the Ministry Plan Discussion Forums. Your input is so vital and very appreciated as we seek to honor and glorify our Savior in our church's ministry. If you have not yet had an opportunity to attend one of the forums, its not too late! Our final discussion forum will be this Wednesday evening at 5:30 p.m. in Modular D-1. All are welcome!

Don't Miss This!

Next Sunday evening, August 8th, at 5:00 p.m., we will be having a Church-Wide Prayer Service for our Mission Team who is going to Bogota, Colombia. You won't want to miss this encouraging time of preparation through prayer.

Family & Youth Day

This morning we welcome Shadd Pittman to the pulpit, a youth evangelist from New Orleans, LA. This evening, beginning at 4:00 p.m., please join us for a variety of seminars for the whole family on the topic of how we can live for God's glory. Pastor Stacy will be speaking to the children in K-5th grade. Evangelist Shadd Pittman will join with students in middle and high school. Pastor Paul Wilkerson from Desert Springs Church in Hesperia, CA will address all of the parents. Pastor Al LeBrun, Minister of Senior Adults at Immanuel Baptist Church in Highland, CA, will speak to all of the grandparents. At 5:00, we'll enjoy some pizza and fellowship, followed by three different family movies for different age groups.
